I want to let people know about the experience my wife and I had with Copeland's Carpets & More. During the sale Tod had told us how meticulous and professional his crews were. We could not be happier with how the installation of the wood floors went. They were very careful when they moved our furniture out of the rooms they were working in.

- Bath fan system—The easiest type of ventilation system to install is a simple exhaust fan system. All bath fans should be ENERGY-STAR-rated models that are quiet (less than 1.5 sone, preferably). People won't use a fan that sounds like an airplane. Choose a model that is rated for continuous operation (typically 30,000 to 50,000 hours).
